

CAREFLOW AI - SYNTHETIC DISCHARGE SUMMARY
SCENARIO 1 ? NORMAL DISCHARGE PLAN

SYNTHETIC HOSPITAL DISCHARGE SUMMARY - DEMO DATA ONLY

Patient Name: Alex Johnson
Patient ID: SYN-PT-80214
Age: 52 | Gender: Male | Language: English
Hospital: Synthetic General Hospital
Admission Date: October 11, 2026
Discharge Date: October 14, 2026
Attending Physician: Dr. Marcus Vance, MD (Cardiology)

PRIMARY DIAGNOSIS:
Acute Anterior ST-Elevation Myocardial Infarction (STEMI).
Successful Primary Percutaneous Coronary Intervention (PCI) with Drug-Eluting Stent (DES) to proximal Left Anterior Descending (LAD) coronary artery.

DISCHARGE MEDICATIONS:

1. Atorvastatin 40 mg oral tablet, take 1 tablet once daily in the evening with dinner. Duration: 90 days.
2. Aspirin 81 mg oral tablet, take 1 tablet once daily in the morning with food. Duration: 12 months.
3. Clopidogrel 75 mg oral tablet, take 1 tablet once daily with water. Duration: 12 months (dual antiplatelet therapy).
4. Metoprolol Tartrate 25 mg oral tablet, take 1 tablet twice daily with meals. Duration: 30 days.

SCHEDULED APPOINTMENTS:

- Cardiology Follow-up Clinic: Scheduled with Dr. Arun Kumar at Synthetic General Hospital Outpatient Cardiology Suite on October 20, 2026 at 10:30 AM.
- Surgical Wound Review: Scheduled at Outpatient Surgical Clinic on October 25, 2026 at 2:00 PM.

REQUIRED MEDICAL TESTS:

- Fasting Blood Test: Complete comprehensive metabolic panel, serum creatinine, and fasting lipid panel on October 15, 2026 prior to morning medication. Fasting required for 10 hours.

CARE AND WOUND INSTRUCTIONS:

- Puncture Site Care: Keep the right femoral catheter puncture site clean, dry, and covered for 48 hours. Sponge bathe only until October 17, 2026.
- Activity Restrictions: Strictly avoid lifting any heavy objects weighing greater than 10 pounds (4.5 kg) for 7 days. Avoid strenuous exertion or driving until cleared by cardiologist.

WARNING SIGNS AND EMERGENCY PROTOCOL:

- If you experience severe chest pain, pressure, radiating arm or jaw discomfort, shortness of breath, cold sweat, or sudden dizziness: CALL EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES (911) IMMEDIATELY OR PROCEED TO THE NEAREST EMERGENCY DEPARTMENT.